MICHAEL KLANT, "GERMAN SKY PIECE OVER CAPE CANAVERAL NATIONAL SEASHORE," PROJECT FOR FLORIDA, SEPT 16, 2000, (BANNER: ACRYLIC ON NYLON, 20' X 60')

At 4pm on Saturday, Sept 16, 2000, a Piper Super Cub will leave Edgewater, FL towing a 20' x 60' banner bearing a painting of a German sky. The flight will follow a triangular route, with Daytona Beach, Cape Canaveral, and Deland determining its turning points.

Works by Michael Klant, including a series of skies from various international locations as well as the banner, silkscreens, and box constructions used in his "Florida Sky Piece" performance of 1999 will be on display at the Duncan Gallery of Art at Stetson University campus.
